

Wisner and Brown at Blountville.

BLOUNTVILLE, TENN., Oct. 10.
EDITORS CHRONICLE: To-day Wisner and Brown met at this place, and discussed the political issues of the day. Every man seems satisfied with the result, and proud of their standard bearer, and no one seems to find fault with either as to the manner of dealing with the points at issue. While we, as Republicans, feel riven to Col. Wisner by his pleasant manners and noble defense of Republicanism, we have the highest respect for General Brown. He indulges in nothing either in language or in manner that is in the slightest offensive to his opponents. He appears so different to the commonest of Democratic politicians that all Republicans are ready to exclaim, "how can he act with them, or how can he associate with the very men who have fought him and his friends on this immortal?"

But he has been schooled in the rebel cause, and mixed with Democrats so long he can say, I am a Democrat without his voice faltering, a blushing mantling his cheek. He unblushingly reiterates the stale charge of corruption, which the Confederate only has to do to own of camping adjoining farms near the town of New School of Market, in Jefferson county; that in the night month of December, 1863, a force of rebels under the command of General Longstreet, also encamped, for about three weeks, and cut the Confederate camp was a convenient one and had fields open used, at different times, by troops before retreating the Federal and rebel armies; but the land, consisting of about ten acres, is very valuable on account of the timber inspiring, owing upon it; that of this, the Federal, and its' had destroyed about two, and the rebels earthen walls, leaving two acres standing.

Colonel L. C. Shepard, General Undertaker, keeps constantly for use Post of Silver-Mounted Caskets. Every description of Metallic Cases, from Plain to Elaborately Silver-Mounted.

The Baptist General Association.

DANDRIDGE, TENN., Oct. 10, 1879.

EDITORS CHRONICLE: The third session of the General Association of the Baptists of East Tennessee met at this place on Saturday last at 1 A. M. The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. L. B. Kimbrough from John xx, 21. The speaker especially urged the earnest prosecution of the home and foreign mission work.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Association was called to order for business at 1:30 P. M. by the President, Elder W. A. Montgomery, and letters from the various Churches and District Associations were received and read. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

For President, Elder W. A. Montgomery, of Leaveland; Vice Presidents, Elders Bob Sneed, Joseph Manning and L. B. Kimbrough; Recording Secretary, Rev. Jesse Baker, Mossy Creek; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. S. J. Norton, Mossy Creek, and Treasurer, John L. Moses, Knoxville.

Dr. T. C. Teasdale preached at 7:30 P. M., to a large and attentive audience. He always has attentive listeners.

On yesterday (Sunday) at 9:30 o'clock A. M., a Sunday school mass meeting met, to which the schools of the town were invited. Elder N. B. Goforth and Dr. Teasdale addressed the children and friends of the Sunday schools.

At the close of his remarks, Dr. Teasdale called for pledges from the District Associations for the purpose of publishing some manuscripts now in his hands, for the use of the Sunday School children.

Rev. S. J. Norton pledged $50 00 on behalf of the Nolachucky Association, to publish one volume. The Sweetwater Association undertook another, at a cost of $50 00. The Associations in general, undertook the publication of a third at a cost of $100 00.

Rev. J. R. Graves, of Memphis, editor of The Baptist, preached the morning sermon to an immense throng of people. He spoke two hours and fifty minutes. His theme was "Jesus Christ our High Priest."

The Rev. Mr. Shackelford, editor of the Christian Herald, at Tuscaloosa, Ala., preached in the evening.

Dr. Sumner, Secretary of the Southern Board of Missions, preached this morning, at 11 o'clock.

The Association is largely attended by representatives of churches from various parts of East Tennessee. The utmost harmony prevails.

[This communication, we are sorry to say, has been delayed because of press of matter. Eds. CHRONICLE.]

Blount County Outrages.

MARYVILLE, TENN., Oct. 10th, 1879.

EDITOR CHRONICLE: The Press and Herald in noticing the "reorganization" of our County Court under the Democratic rule, with considerable gusto, takes up the "Blount county outrages," which says have been committed under the very eyes of the law. When and where committed? Will the Press and Herald answer, and tell us a single instance where the offenders have not been dealt with? It cannot do it inside of this county, unless it be for outrageous shanders by the Democracy of the county, such as the Bay's preacher-whipping last spring. The Democratic court repudiated the school tax assessed by the Republican court, and went back on itself in electing a new Chairman, viz., the Chairman which had been elected last July under their own Constitution, and on motion of the present incumbent. We have been informed that a certain lawyer, who claims to be "some pumpkins" on legal matters, was in court and held that these proceedings were legal!

Our county has suffered much from the slanders of the Press and Herald, Republicans and their friends. Will they please come to time and name the outrages?

Call for a Convention.

DANDRIDGE, TENN., Oct. 10th, 1879.

To the Republicans of Jefferson County:
You are hereby requested to meet in Convention at the Court House in Dandridge, on Saturday, the 22d inst., for the purpose of nominating a Republican candidate to represent us in the next General Assembly of the State of Tennessee. Also, for the purpose of taking into consideration other matters, that would tend to promote the interest of the party.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,
J. NAT'L LYLE
M. C. Exec. Committee.

Unfinished Business.

Owing to press of business, and the delay of committees in reporting, some important items were not noticed in our previous list. The following are noted: Mrs. L. E. Miller, an aged lady, had an exhibition the following beautiful articles which were universally admired: I embroidered carriage rug, tidy, I embroidered pillow case, 2 needle work cushioned chairs.

Atkin & Coffman and Hoxie & DePue, both had a fine display and assortment of stoves, tinware, &c. Messrs. A. & C. also exhibited a beautiful specimen of corse.

C. W. CHARLTON, Sec'y.
